FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EUROMAT re-elects Jason Frost as President

On the 8th-9th of May 2023 members of the European Gaming and Amusement Federation (EUROMAT) met in Zagreb, Croatia for the association's Annual General Meeting. The two-day gathering was hosted by the Croatian Gaming Association (HUPIS). The AGM saw the unanimous re-election of Jason Frost as President as well as the re-election of Uwe Christiansen as Vice President and the re-election of Sanne Muijser as Treasurer. Senior representation from EUROMAT also joined the Croatian Gaming Association at a separate meeting with the Croatian Tax Administration Office to discuss the international regulation of gambling and player protection.

Commenting on his re-election, Jason Frost said: "I am very proud that our members have put their trust in me, our Vice-President and Treasurer for another term.

"EUROMAT is thriving: our membership continues to grow and we are making a real impact on legislation at European and national level".

"In the next two years, I want to focus on delivering even more value for members and help to drive forward innovation in payments, where strategically it's important for our industry to focus if we want to remain relevant to our players".

The AGM also ratified the membership of the Club de Convergences from Spain and confirmed the association's support for the European Gambling and Amusement Summit organized by Swan Events in Montenegro 19th to 21st September.
